I have questions about taxes and pensions.

How do I put out my garbage?

What if there's a fire or an earthquake?

What if I get sick?

Important Information for Before and After a Disaster: “Disaster Preparedness in Kawasaki” booklet

Pick up Kawasaki City’s disaster prevention handbook for foreign residents at your ward office.

There are English, Chinese, Korean, Portuguese, Spanish, and Filipino versions.

The Kawasaki City Disaster Prevention Portal Site has disaster prevention information as well as disaster warnings and notifications for Kawasaki City and its surroundings.

!!! A major earthquake has occurred! What do I do now?

If you are indoors...

First, move to protect yourself.

Check the safety of your surroundings.

Put out any small fires around you, if possible.

Move calmly toward the exit.

Help the people around you.

If you are outdoors...

Remain calm and move to protect your head from falling objects.

Move away from anything that seems about to fall.

Evacuate on foot. (Do not use a car, elevator, etc.)
